

Property in Luberon

Built on a 3ha land, this superb home of about 300sqm, with pool, is overlooking the splendid Luberon countryside nearby the famous village of Gordes.

The quality of the construction, it is a vast lounge (70sqm) with its monumental chimney, 3 bedrooms and one independent 2 bedroom house with dining room and kitchen. One "Borie" for a garden house and a stone made pool house signs the good taste of this beautifully styled house.

The calm and privacy of this privileged area, chosen as a living for a few well known people are as much interests for this ensemble that put together style, charme and undisputable comfort.

The natural environment makes it a unique place, especially for lovers of nature but very close to the culture and quietness life ones can find in this uncommon part of southern France.
